

Seven Billion Humans— Investing in Each Other’s Lives and World

How can the Human Unity Project transform our lives—realizing consummate joy and goodness for all humans on Earth?

Over 48 years, I and above 1,000 fellow searchers have explored a broad diversity of humans and cultures worldwide, yielding foundational anthropology, declarations of Human Unity globally, and a protocol for saving over $1.5 trillion yearly. —Eugene Haggerty

“Ultimately, humanity is one.” —President Barack Obama

Having unveiled the stunning powers and benefits of universal human agreement and compassionate, unbounded goodness, can we, at last, make all humans secure and whole?

In today’s highly troubled world, nothing is more desperately needed than a Human Unity of Purpose—so all humans on Earth can live to the full security, wholeness, joy and goodness.

Consider the following:

1. We are all humans. This uniquely primal, universally obvious, empirically irrefutable fact of our lives endures as the supreme practical foundation for all of our lives and environments.
2. Therefore, we agree that we are all humans, from every implicit to explicit level of our consciousness.
3. It is our essential and universal agreement that enables us to build upon our innate inheritance, creating the supremely practical, unprecedented paradigms for all our lives. It is humans agreeing that finally ensures our unexampled trove of life beyond measure. Untold forms of security, wholeness, joy, goodness and consummate realization lies before us. Indeed, all 7 billion humans will in good time awaken to our plight. Example: we are free to inquire, profoundly consider and discover: Humans killing each other exhibits the ultimate fallacy. Thus, it is the ultimate scourge of our lives. Alien to our essential nature, these killings are the primal and paradigmatic error goading us all into self-destruction.
4. Fundamentally, World Public Forum’s Human Unity Project is releasing unparalleled practicality for unveiling, sensing and actualizing all of our deepest hopes and grandest priorities. Concomitant to uniting all humans, the project generates integral relationships globally for actualizing the highest aspirations of all of our institutions and myriad diverse populations throughout the world. Effectively, the project performs singularly, via the project’s inclusive and integral procedures, for synergizing, ensuring and realizing to the full the newfound troves of opportunity for all individual and united humans and diversities.

5. As the sun is our source of energy, humans are our foundation and source for universal human agreement. To ensure operational integrity and optimal service for all, the project is grounded in uniquely solid, essential human agreements, as well as integrally with all of our political, economic, religious, national and myriad profoundly cherished diversities. Relationships between all humans and our world of diversities are deepened in service through the project's mutually ensured security and incomparable benefits for all. Further, the project serves to uplift all individual and united humans, diverse institutions, groupings and identities on Earth.
6. Project initiatives and operations are underway for examining, detailing and ensuring our most essential and highest priority benefits. Through agreement-inspired conversations and searching inquiry, we unveil truest, highest aspirations, realizing ever rising and unexpected benefits. In nature, we are intrinsically endowed for fulfilling our security and wholeness priorities. Furthermore, these benefits open for us all heretofore unimagined global celebrations and discoveries, releasing deepening joy and consummate goodness, that is, in nature, our truest destiny.
7. The Human Unity Project is dedicated to ensuring the security and optimizing the wholeness of all lives and environments on Earth. The project is launching novel, unprecedented solutions designed to meet the most pressing, imperative challenges before us. The solutions include universal human agreement, releasing our conversations and communications from obsolescing, needless disagreements. In turn, our foundational agreements facilitate robust, deepening inquiries, inspire unitive human projections and plans, generate synergistic operations, release quantum levels of support, funding and benefits, rising to consummate goodness throughout all of our lives and environments.
8. The project seeks $85,000 seed funding for parlaying full-fledged funding. Parlaying our resources will defray project expenses while realizing quantum global net savings, estimated at some $1.5 trillion yearly. (Estimates are revised from www.HumanUnity.org.) 9. Consider an astonishing paradox: Though we are humans, we do not actually live as humans. As long as we do not live as humans, but live only out of our myriad secondary identities, we cannot even conceive of, let alone realize, life as it so richly could be lived—and indeed must have been lived by our forebears. Indeed, were this not true, we humans might not have survived in the first place! Apparently, only by living as humans can we achieve the requisite security, wholeness, love, joy and goodness which would make our continued existence possible.

So why can't we live as humans? Is it necessary to play out the alternative—living in a climate of mutual threat and fear? Or can we bring the delight, the magnificence of life and the power of love to the fore? By living from a simple human focus, synergized with our diverse foci, our lives as humans will become the majestic core of our existence, transforming the everyday into the extraordinary. Then there is no longer a question of being “only human” or “all too human,” or referring to “human nature” disparagingly. The human frontier is rife with transformative possibilities that we can scarcely fathom . . . if even a tiny fraction of this planet's inhabitants were to act synergistically, on behalf of humans and integrally for diverse institutions and entities, the world would be forever transformed beyond our wildest hopes and dreams.

10. For all the countless troubled and destitute lives on Earth, now and throughout all untold polarized culture, at last we can rise to the innate goodness of all our lives. Human agreement, integrity, wholeness and love are among our key endowments for realizing our life prospects. Finally, we are grounded in our true inheritance—as humans. With our agreements unexpectedly practical and relationships essential and inspiring, our lives will dawn upon a joyous whole. Our lives become primed to parlay to heights beyond all experience and known history. It is our unique nature and boundless inheritance which promise to lift us beyond our species' epochal, polarized live. Ours is a world on the verge of release to every priority and opportunity. We are truly destined to rise to every glorious magnificence that our lives can create. Indeed, Human Unity is our singular engine of agreement, supreme practicality and universally beneficent opportunity for all of our lives and environments.

Share the Human Unity Project with Resourceful Friends and Colleagues!

How can one possibly generate the innate goodness inherent within all 7 billion humans? It begins with you, your friends and colleagues, and their friends and colleagues. We all live within a world of boundless synergistic resourcefulness—a resourcefulness that goes exponential each time our natural potential as individual and united humans becomes recognized and freed by a new population of thinking humans.

If you are ready for the grandest of all developments on Earth—of all humans investing and harvesting to the full in all of our lives and the world we share—no doubt you also know and have caring friends and colleagues equally ready for the world’s most astonishing opportunity. And each of your friends, in turn, may know of others who harbor such dreams—and who can make their own unique and essential contribution. Imagine the sweep of expertise, influence and resources you—and those you know—can launch upon the world!

Wanted: Benefactors, Resource People, Developers, and anyone who wishes to contribute to the Human Unity Project conversation and benefit for all

Whether this describes you, or your friends and colleagues, or people you may already know whose most profound dream is to live in a world where everyone benefits—we invite you to leverage your insights, resources, and depth of caring for each and all of us in ways that are most effective.

You are more than welcome to share with us your own thoughts, expertise and financial resources for accomplishing Human Unity. Human Unity is a project we all own and will come to esteem. Treat it like it makes all the difference in your world—for the kind of world and life you would love to live in.
