

"The whole planet is just us. Therefore, destruction of another area essentially is destruction of yourself."
-The Dalai Lama

"We must create not only a massive but a basic change in our culture, in our entire approach to our relationship with other human beings."

-Walter Cronkite

"The threat of proliferation is growing in scope and complexity. If we fail to act, we will invite nuclear arms races in every region, and the prospect of wars and acts of terror on a scale that we can hardly imagine."

-President Barack Obama (September 23, 2009)

"The day after a nuclear attack, what would we wish we had done? Why aren't we doing it now?"

-Sam Nunn, Co-Chair, Nuclear Threat Initiative

"Mr. Shultz appreciated your material [and] your important work on the Human Unity Project."

-George Schultz' Hoover Institution Office

How can we actually secure—and make whole—all our lives and environments on Earth?

We might simply take note—We are all humans. This is not only irrefutable, but vastly consequential. Our universal humanness grounds our agreement beyond all our differences, freeing us to engage in unprecedented conversations and shared inquiry across all barriers. This unity of purpose enables the realization of our most important and immediately pressing priorities on Earth.

The Human Unity Project builds upon the universally agreed-upon fact that we are all humans, bringing forth our innately shared concerns for ensuring the security and wholeness of all our lives and environments. By focusing on this inherent agreement, supremely practical operations are generated for quelling our planet's most intractable problems, resulting in incomparable benefits for all.

Discover the majesty of Human Unity. Find out how you can effectively gain possession of your rightful inheritance, authentic individuality, and integral accomplishments in all areas of life.

Imagine solutions whose simplicity and cost effectiveness are beyond anything we have so far conceived. Find out how the launch of a planet-wide conversation—beginning today from our innate agreement wherever on Earth—can actually save and prioritize trillions each year.

Get started at HumanUnity.org to see how already-existing agreement translates into unimagined mastery of every area of our lives and environments.

WORLDWIDE PRAISE FOR The Human Unity Project

"My sincerest congratulations for your profound engagement toward peace."

-Javier Pérez de Cuéllar, former UN Secretary General

"I have been pleading ... for the oneness and unity of humankind, and your project signals the first concrete step toward its realization."

-Mochtar Lubis, Indonesian journalist & writer

"This is a beautiful idea-the action of being together as we are, just as human beings. A budget of almost nothing can accomplish everything."

-Americ Azevedo, Peace & Conflict Studies, UC Berkeley

"Trust people like human beings. They'll act like human beings."

-Mohamed ElBaradei, Peace Nobel (2005); former director general, U.N. Atomic Energy Agency

Bringing True Life to All Humans

Discover how we can truly and actually live (as well as be) as humans. This will generate a planet-wide transformation so positive and effective that the optimal security, wholeness and fruition of all life and environments on Earth would be virtually assured. And this is no less than grandeur for all our diversities and institutions. For further information, see HumanUnity.org.

Archbishop Desmond Tutu

A singular cross-section of thinkers and leaders across the world have endorsed the Declaration of Human Unity (posted at HumanUnity.org)—among them H.H. the Dalai Lama, Walter Cronkite, Desmond Tutu, Javier Pérez de Cuéllar, Lily Sun, Fang Lizhi, Arun Gandhi, J.R.D. Tata, Ravi Shankar, Luba Brezhnev, Willie L. Brown Jr., Tom Campbell, Richard Leakey, Bill Joy, Norman Cousins, Herb Caen, Robin Williams, Shirley MacLaine, Stevie Wonder and hundreds more.

To accomplish these goals, the Human Unity Project requires an operating budget for public outreach that can launch vast benefits at extremely minimal cost. Our website, HumanUnity.org, demonstrates the nearly unlimited potential of this project for all human life and environments.
